

These maps show the location of Clarke County Schools by population and poverty level. The second map shows that a majority of the schools are located in a more affluent location. One might think this is due to higher population; however, it is not a highly populated area.