

Suitability Analysis Results for Location of New Training Center in Athens-Clarke County

The map displays the land suitable for the location of a new training facility. These maps use a raster analysis to find the areas that meet the criteria; however, this analysis allows you to see the areas in degree of suitability. The weighted map (bottom) sets different weight to the criteria, in order to see which area is most suitable.