

This map displays the historic sites of Athens-Clarke County. The data is a subset of data that includes all the sites in Athens-Clarke County. It shows where the historic sites are located, mainly around the University of Georgia campus. Other elements in the map include population by census tracts.